Extend on the way with the in briefly ling out that as primarily vere to induce the amongst sias. Paragraphic singleton. In the contraction in receive y farewell hat the sp ng for wo ther hymn at asked 1 to the wo 'd she 'hre port He ought of year-old She I in the work when a three-year work when a three-year grandmother's knea. It that desire, and in rich and Christian Endreceived her training. I go to Fijt.—At a-Onrist evention, she felt the Lor rigipes, and twelve more that the call was coealed to fellow Christian emember how precious we state the call was could we would be called to fellow Christian emember how precious we would we would be called to fellow Christian emember how precious we would we would be called to fellow Christian emember how precious we would be called to fellow Christian emember how precious we would be called to fellow Christian emember how precious we would be called the c ary her 's knee.
, and in the stan Endeaveraining. Here tes-Ohristian sit the Lord's twelve month and the confinence of the conf and a wou prive cases she milised the worl would confound was rearer to her since won her work. Miss Pain concurs an aboal to her hearers to do the world which they were called.

The meeting then effered up silent prayer for Miss Pain in her missionary work, and this was followed by a fervent prayer by the chairman.

The Rev G. H. Hewlit, president of the Christian Endeavour District Union, said that his mind went back over long years to the night when he was set apart to God's work, and he remembered the solemn delight that filled him. He prayed God that their sister might lead many aborigines to Christ. Though he was proud of his native land, he was agenetimes filled with deep shame when he thoughtof the little that had been done for the aborigines. He was proud to know that one more mission sister was going forth to the aborigines from the Newcastle Christian Endeavour District Union. She would have the prayers of the 1400 Christian deavourers whom she left behind, was prayers would sustain her despondent. He prayed that might rest upon her, nor suit be successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful, ever be tabuted in the contract of the successful. and and the y 5-5 - 6 Sept. tt - - 53ぎきらじま have the prayers of two have the prayers whom she left behind, and those prayers would sustain her when she was despondent. He prayed that the Spirit of God might rest upon her, nor did he doubt that she would be successful, although the success might never be tabulated in figures. The speaker quoted instances of the power of the Cross to uplift the most savage or sunken races, and concluded with an earnest God-speed to lated in figures. The speaker quoted stances of the power of the Cross to lift the most savage or sunken races, concluded with an earnest God-speed Miss Pain.

All the Endeavourers present then tered into an engagement to pray we for the Pain.

Mr. Tharles Golden, an aboriginal, secretary of the La Perouse Christian deavow Roclety, addressed the meet urging those present to work and pray Christ's Kingdom.

Miss Dixon said she had a message them and it was "Abraham obeyed." To could say that Miss Pain, too, had obe the stipe voice, calling her to give up he and friends. The same call had come 3 i then en-ry weekly and Engdom, n said she had a message was "Abraham obeyed." T nat Miss Pain, too, had obe ice, calling her to give up he
The same call had come
on the same call had come
on the same call had come
of the same call had the van Roberts. Had that van the audience, and had t
The call meant hardship, resence of Christ consoled peaker made a stirring spo for wind say that M he same voice, es
and frends. Th
doses, Gideon, E
how, Cromwell, L
atlied any in the beyed? The ch
beyed? The ch
loving presen
il. The speaker
o all to obe Mat-Mof-voice they , but thow fatt, calle obeyed: Ine can meant manually, but the loving presence of Christ consoled for all. The speaker made a stirring appeal to all to obey the call.

Rev. Raimsford Bavin then gave the charge to Miss Pain in the form of two charge to Miss Pain in the form of two charge to Miss Pain in the form of two texts: "I will go in the strength of the Lord God. I will make mention of Thy righteousness, even of Thine only," and the reply, "My presence shall go with the end I shall give thee rest."

Mr. A. Jones presented the report of the Joint Christian Endeavour Societies who support a native missionary in New Britzin. Mr. G. Fund the post-lentral Mis-cout to enter behalf of the ford Bavin v's ser-ment, s the hith long 15日日エイノの 乗り用いる th ary, and a handsome pocket-bo of the Christian Endervour Furious authably responded, an ing Stoped with the singing of you 'll we meet again," and benealction. ar) of ion-Endeavour Society. Mr. esponded, and the meet-singing of "Ood be with again," and the Mispan

. . .

;

:

.

ABORIGNES' MISSION

New Bavin e the

were the Re the Christian Messrs F

presided, tev. G. H

Wilson

FRRU NEY

MISSIONARY

Rains

Unio

k

nlg)
for Pai.
abo
Rev
the

pres tri :