

Mr. THRELKELD is advancing rapidly in his exertions to disseminate some knowledge of the Scriptures among the Aboriginal Natives of Hunter's River and Shoal Haven, whom he describes as possessing a good capacity, and by no means the degraded, unintellectual beings they have been represented. Mr. T. has completed a Grammatical specimen of the Dialect of the Aborigines, being the first attempt to reduce it into a written language. The work is now in the Press.