
The Newcastle Fortification Works.

It is stated that Mr. Thomas Croudace, J.P., manager at Lambton colliery, has been appointed on behalf of Government to superintend the necessary mining engineering work in connection with rendering safe the excavations of the old coal workings under Flagstaff Hill, lately inspected by Colonels Scratchley and Roberts.

1881, May 28th. Newcastle Morning Herald & Miners Advocate, p.4

Mr Thomas Croudace J.P. manager at Lambton colliery appointed to administer mining engineering work to render old coal workings safe.

The Newcastle Fortification Works

It is stated that Mr. Thomas Croudace, J.P., manager at Lambton colliery, has been appointed on behalf of Government to superintend the necessary mining engineering work in connection with rendering safe the excavations of the old coal workings under Flagstaff Hill, lately inspected by Colonels Scratchley and Roberts.