SPORTING FIGURE TO TRANSFER TO UNION

The Board of Management of the Union appointed Mr. S. (Stan) D. Barwick to the position of Secretary/Manager. Mr. Barwick is presently Activities Organiser in the Amenities Office and will take up his new appointment on October 17.

Mr. Barwick, who is 28, was born in Hobart and before coming to the University 3½ years ago was Ground Defence Officer at the RAAF base at Williamstown. He is a graduate of both the Army's Officer Cadet School, Portsea, and the RAAF Officer Training School, Point Cook.

Mr. V. Bridgewater, the previous Secretary/Manager of the Union, left on August 18 to become Conference/House Manager at Edwards Hall.

ARTIST’S GIFT TO NEWCASTLE

While Michio Ihara was attached to the University and Newcastle CAE he designed a wind sculpture which will be erected soon on a site in the city of Newcastle. Artist in Residence with the University's Department of Architecture and the College's Department of Art for 11 weeks until he returned to the United States recently, Michio successfully opposed Newcastle City Council's Finance Committee when it wanted to erect his wind sculpture in Civic Park. The Council later decided that it had no objection to Michio's choice of site, the traffic island at the intersection of Scott and Hunter streets, for which the eight-metre-high stainless steel work was specially designed.

Michio completed a design of a sculpture and constructed part of the actual work before his departure. Completion was achieved by staff of the University and College. The steel was provided by the Commonwealth Steel Co. Ltd and welding was done by Newcastle Technical College. On his return to the United States, where he now lives (he was born in Paris and educated in Tokyo), he expects to begin a project for the Rockefeller Centre in New York.
NEW STUDENTS' EXECUTIVE

Janet Hallinan, a Diploma in Education student, is President-elect of the Students' Representative Council.

Elections conducted recently filled executive positions on the 26th Council (the 25th). The executive of the 25th Council will continue in office until the Annual General Meeting of the Students' Association is held early in First Term next year.

Leo Walsh is President and Peter Tullgren is Secretary.

Walsh did not seek re-election for the 1978 term (he expects to read for Honours in English). Tullgren was re-elected unopposed for a second term.

Terry Collins was the only candidate for election as Treasurer and was elected.

Steve Russell (Arts) was elected Local AUS Secretary on the 26th SRC defeating Michael Barr.

Ann Roche (B.Ed.Stud) was elected unopposed Education Officer.

Graham Thompson (Architect) was elected unopposed Services Officer.

Mareille Hall (Arts) was elected unopposed Social Action Officer.

Ruth Callcott (Arts) was elected unopposed Womens Officer.

Kerry Ryan (Arts) was elected unopposed Environment Officer.

Richard Howitt (Arts) was elected unopposed Race Relations Officer.

Janet Hallinan enrolled as a student in the Faculty of Arts in 1972. She has been a student representative in the Department of English and President of the English Society. A member of the Australian Labor Party, she was treasurer of the S.R.C. last year and Media Officer this year.

She undertook to serve her electorate by pursuing those specific matters:

- Truly represent and work for the interests of students on off campus.
- Make herself available for interviews to both part and full time students.
- Take a strong stand with the Administration on all issues involving students.
- Attempt to democratise the SRC by shifting a large part of policy decision-making to the courtyards of meetings of students.
- Critically support the Australian Union of Students.
- Work for better conditions for students (course content/workload etc).
- Work to improve the living conditions of students by working towards a university-owned housing scheme for students.
- Work to improve the public transport system as it relates to students, including lobbying the state government to introduce a student reduction on ALL fares.

Lobby the State Government to increase not decrease Teacher Education Scholarships and allowances. Similarly initiate and support pressure groups to have guaranteed employment clauses placed in Teacher Education Scholarships.

Ensure that the Teachers' Association is a viable force on campus.

Protect and defend the rights of minority groups on campus:
- women, migrants, overseas students, homosexuals, etc. - look into their particular problems.
- Liaise with local trade union, unemployment, conservation and charitable groups in order to promote student-community relationships.

Actively fight not only to maintain the quality of education but to improve it.

Work to improve work conditions of staff employed by the Students Association.

Actively promote clubs and societies.

The elections for Faculty representatives on the 26th S.R.C. resulted:

Architect, Douglas White; Arts, J. Mark Bradbury, Kim Tulk, Rosemary Conway, David Cox;

Engineering, Martin Roche; Science, Paul Schembri;

James Tsolakis, Andrew Wilson, Adrian O'Connell, Paul Burks, Anthony Kelly and Greg Duggan were nominated for election as Economics and Commerce representatives. As this Faculty elects two representatives it was necessary to hold a ballot on October 4.

No nominations were received for election as Education and Mathematics representatives.

The selection of the 1978 Media Officer was particularly noteworthy this time. Each of the candidates, Joyce Morgan (English honours student) and Steve Date (Arts student), busied themselves with electioneering near the polling place, the S.R.C. Office. Joyce Morgan, who received 426 votes, was successful.

Steve Date polled 128 votes.

The prime duty of Media Officer is editing and producing Opus, the students' newspaper.

Joyce Morgan stated that essentially she saw the function of Opus as to provide a medium to exchange views on social/political issues rather than to push any particular editorial appercet.

Although her politics were essentially 'leftist' she believed that expression of varied political positions should be encouraged in Opus if it were to avoid becoming an elitist publication.

Her plans in connection with Opus were to:

- Encourage greater student participation in and contributions to Opus - for example, student articles, letters, reviews, art work and poems.

Joyce Morgan

Place greater emphasis on local issues and happenings, both within the University and in the Newcastle region.

Form a media Opus committee of interested persons willing to contribute to and help with the publication of Opus.

Promote greater awareness of and debate on issues such as uranium, and the environment generally, education, political and social alternatives etc.

Carry out a survey early 1978 to ascertain student wants as regards Opus.

The positions of President and Media Officer are full-time paid positions.

Council was told that the University Union had indicated that it would not be seeking an increase in the General Services charge for 1978.

Council has approved a proposal of the Faculty Board, Faculty of Economics and Commerce, to introduce a course leading to the Diploma in Economic Studies in 1978.

Council agreed that the course leading to the degree of Master of Business Administration be introduced in 1978.

Council was presented with a report on progress being made with the Clinical Sciences Facilities at Royal Newcastle Hospital and the Mater Misericordiae Hospital. The brief for the facilities, prepared by a committee under the Chairmanship of Professor L.N. Short, with representatives of the University, the Hospital and the Health Commission of New South Wales, has been finalised and a copy has been sent to the Universities Council.

The Architect, Lawrence Neild & Partners, and other consultant appointed by the Health Commission, are proceeding with the preparation of designs for the building to be constructed at the Royal Newcastle Hospital on an area of land being acquired by the Health Commission between the existing Out-Patients Block and Watt Street.

Individual Timetables are now available for the November Examinations. Get your own copy from the Library, Student Administration, Engineering, Geology, Commerce or Architecture Buildings. Quite a few changes have been made in the times shown on the Provisional Timetable, so mind you don’t get caught.

Keep watching the Departmental Notice Boards for Room and Desk allocation lists, which will be displayed as soon as possible before Stu-Vac.

WHY DIDN'T I READ THE TIMETABLE PROPERLY NOW!
NEWCASTLE

On Sunday, October 16, from 2 until 5 pm, in the open spaces of Fort Scratchley, a public event will be performed - Shooting the Great War Movie, an historical recreation of the shelling of Newcastle on June 8, 1942. Between 2.30 and 2.45 am on June 8, 1942, a Japanese submarine ordered fire on the intruder and history was made. This was the first artillery counter-attack at an enemy from Australian shores. Members of the Maritime Services Museum are organising exhibits of the period and the long history of Newcastle Harbour. It is hoped to bring the event alive again in the form of a Great Hollywood Movie - a piece of entertainment which will capture the personal feelings during the attack, as well as the factual events. It is estimated that a Hollywood cast and crew of about 60 people will perform the event under the direction of a Great Hollywood Director (Robert Pride) and a pragmatic Script Writer. The event will be constructed under the auspices of the Department of Drama and will involve participation from various local community, historical and educational groups.

A DIFFERENT ART EXHIBITION

Convocation's sponsorship of the visit of James Ishola Adegado to Newcastle was briefly mentioned in the last issue of the News. Members of the University will be able to meet the Nigerian artist in the Great Hall foyer during what should be an exciting and unorthodox exhibition on October 13 and 14. Mr. Adegado's works of art come to life - literally! The artist sings, chants, mimé and acts out the subject of the individual paintings, their characters being chosen mainly from West African mythology and folklore.

Mr. Adegado was born in Oyo State, Nigeria in 1941 and at present lives in Ile-Ife about 200 kms from Lagos. From 1969-72 Mr. Adegado studied at the Institute of African Studies, University of Ife. His works are displayed permanently in universities in Nigeria and Ghana and also in San Francisco. However, his paintings have also been exhibited as far afield as London, East Africa and Budapest, and this year he has also had a travelling exhibition in the United Kingdom. The exhibition is presently on display in the John Clark Gallery at the University of New South Wales. Dr. Bern Hewitt, a graduate of the University of N.S.W., suggested that the University's Alumni Association sponsor a visit to Australia of Mr. Adegado. Dr. Bern Hewitt is lecturing at the Polytechnic in Ibadan. (Bern will be on leave in Australia for some of the exhibition's duration). The exhibition will be opened by the Vice-Principal of the University (Professor A.D. Tweedie) on October 13 at 3.30 p.m. An invitation is extended to students and staff of the University, C.A.E. and Technical College. It will also be open to the public on Friday, October 14 at 7.30 p.m.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT REPRESENTATIVES

Officers from the Department of Education will visit the University in October to answer general enquiries relating to the Tertiary Education Allowances Scheme and the other schemes of student assistance administered by this Department. The schedule of proposed visits:

October 6, Mr. S. Loader (Tertiary Education Assistance Scheme).
October 11 to 13, Miss A. Carson (Postgraduate Awards Schemes).
October 20, Miss V. Hormian (Special Services Section).
October 27, Mr. S. Loader (Tertiary Education Assistance Scheme).

The Officers can be consulted in room 129, opposite the Faculty of Mathematics, phone extension 602.
THE STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

A Women's Film Festival was held at the Workers' Club on September 25. Organised by Ann Roche, the SRC's Women's Officer, it was a great success, more than $70 being received in donations from people present.

The student representatives on the Board of Management of the University's radio station, 2 NUR-FM, Ann Roche and Graham Thomson, who were elected by the SRC, are endeavouring to hear from students with interests in radio, such as those with ideas for a programme policy, willing to make record collections, etc., available or have talents to offer.

Students' Association fee rises for 1978, necessary to cover basic running costs and inflation were approved by a meeting in the Courtyard. The actual rises are:

$1 for part-timers and $2 for full-time students bringing the fees for part-timers to $15 a year and those for full-timers to $19 a year. They still have to be approved by the University Council.

The Trainee Teachers' Association has been revived on the campus. A courtyard meeting was addressed by Mike Davis, of the NSW Teachers Federation. For further information contact Janet Hallinan. A Trainee Teachers' Survival Conference will be held in Sydney on October 8 and 9. Five students from this campus will be funded by the AUS and the TTA. If you are interested in attending contact the SRC.

The accumulated loss was not discovered until the annual audit and fares have been increased by 3 to 5% to cover costs. The Company has now adopted new procedures, where all monies paid by students are paid into a trust account, which can only be used for the purchase of tickets or for refunds making it now the safest travel company in Australia for its customers.

A U S Travel. Janet Hallinan and I attended a special AUS Council meeting in Sydney on September 17 and 18 to investigate the whole affair. The Council approved a five-year arrangement with creditor airlines. This will enable AUS Travel to continue trading and made a $50,000 unsecured loan to help the Company get back on its feet. The Travel Company ran into difficulties, basically, because it was charging about 51% of normal economy air fares for its tickets, where it needed to charge about 52% to break even.
"PHONEFICHE" IN THE AUCHMUTY LIBRARY

By courtesy of the United States Information Service the Auchmuty Library now holds some of the 1976 edition of Phonefiche. Current Telephone Directories on Microfiche put out by Bell & Howell of Wooster, Ohio, U.S.A. while this collection is restricted to the "Associated Telephone Companies of the Bell System" and thereby excluded independent telephone companies, it does cover some 29 major urban areas of the United States and includes the yellow pages.

The "Phonefiche" is a valuable addition to our holdings. As the United States Information Service has offered to continue sending us the immediately superseded editions, our holdings will be up-dated regularly as each new edition is produced. A list of the areas covered will be available at the reference desk and a reference is given in the catalogue from Telephone Districts - U.S. for easy finding.

JOAN MURRAY, Assistant University Librarian (Reader Services).

Captain, Glenn Davies (Civil Eng.), Geoff Bright (Comp. Ed.), David Yorke (Commerce) and Gerry Wheatley (Commerce). Professor Carter, Head of the Department of Sociology, presented vouchers, for a purchase at the Pavilion Store, to each member of the winning team and advised them that their entry fee for the competition to be conducted by University Soccer Club later in the year would be paid.

1977 WHITE WINES RELEASED AT THE STAFF HOUSE LTD.

The Staff House is offering for sale two 1977 white wines from the Hunter Valley. Members will remember that the 1977 vintage was an excellent one for white wines and these are no exception. We would suggest that both wines would be excellent for summer drinking, or delightful for that special lunchtime meal at Staff House.

The first wine is a Tyrrell's Hunter River Riesling - a worthy successor to last year's edition, which proved very popular with our members. The 1977 wine is brilliant in appearance and without fault, having the typical crispness in taste, that one associates with this maker's white wines. The clean, varietal fruit shows through on the nose and to the well balanced palate, which has a soft acid finish. The remarkable thing is that, by negotiation with the Tyrrells, we have been able to buy at a price which will allow us to sell the wine at the same amount as last year's wine.

The second wine is an Elliotts 1977 Belford Private Bin Riesling. We like this wine both as a drinking wine as well as a cellaring proposition. Those that are familiar with the line will agree that this is a very good example of the style. We thought the wine to be sound, well made, clean on nose and palate, with a good depth of fruit. We liked this wine better than the 1976 edition, principally, because of the better quality of the fruit used. Unfortunately, inflation has caught up with the price of this wine, and, although we have managed to buy at a very favourable price on today's market, we are forced to sell this line at a higher price than last year's wine.

Wine
Tyrrell's Hunter River Riesling 1977 Price $1.95/bottle
Elliotts Private Bin Belford Riesling 1977 Price $2.40/bottle

MEMBERS will notice that these prices are considerably cheaper per bottle than those shown in the "Recommended Retail Prices." In addition, we offer a 10% discount on single purchases in excess of $20.

We are very fortunate to have this opportunity to hear Mr. Mouton in Australia for only a brief period and can speak with first-hand knowledge on a topic which was recently of great moment and should still attract attention despite the dearth of information. This he can provide. Please make a special effort to attend. If the year closes without improvement the Committee may be forced to take drastic action.
