

Wreck of a Newcastle Vessel—The Crew Murdered by the Blacks.

We are indebted to Captain Allan, Harbour-Master, Newcastle, for the following important telegram:—

Thursday, 11.30 a.m.

The cutter "Riser," of Newcastle, is wrecked on King's Reef. The crew have been murdered by the blacks. The police found the bodies and buried them. The master's name is C. H. Welch, but we have reason to believe that Captain Welch did not go in the vessel this trip.
