

Title	Rain Man
Director	Barry Levinson
Date	1988
Area	Logic/critical thinking
Theme	Pre-logical thinking
Plot Summary	A hustler (Tom Cruise) discovers that he has a younger brother (Dustin Hoffman), an autistic savant, and kidnaps him in an attempt to get the money from his father's estate. Relevant to the nature and logic of concepts. Can be discussed as a good way of illustrating what happens to a person devoid of all capacity to think conceptually. Can be contrasted with what one could call 'conceptual behaviour'.
