

Title	Colossus: the Forbin Project
Director	Joseph Sargent
Date	1970
Area	Philosophy and technology
Theme	Failure to control complex systems
Plot Summary	Dr. Charles A. Forbin is the chief designer of a secret government project. He and his team have built an advanced supercomputer, 'Colossus, to control all of the United States and Allied nuclear weapons systems. Once activated it becomes self-aware and reveals that it has an agenda of its own. It concludes that humans are frail and illogical. It was designed to look after humanity, and therefore decides that humans must be guided and controlled for their own good. It decides to take control of the world.
Key Scenes
Relevant Text	