

Title	Black Robe
Director	Bruce Beresford
Date	1991
Area	Social and Political Philosophy
Theme	Colonialism/religion
Plot Summary	About a Jesuit mission to convert Huron Indians to Catholicism in 1630s Quebec. The film details the harrowing canoe trip taken in intense cold by idealistic Father La Forge (Lothaire Bluteau), a young carpenter, and a band of Algonquin Indians into Huron territory to reach a disease-stricken outpost.
Key Scenes
Relevant Text	