

Title	Breaker Morant
Director	Bruce Beresford
Date	1980
Area	Moral Philosophy
Theme	Utilitarianism - excesses
Plot Summary	Three Australian soldiers, including Breaker Morant (Edward Woodward), are court martialed by the British for executing prisoners, in order to prevent Germany from entering the Boer War on the Boer side. Can be used to discuss the idea that utilitarianism can be used to justify outright injustice in the name of the greater good.
Key Scenes
Relevant Text	