

Title	Judgement at Nuremberg
Director	Stanley Kramer
Date	1961
Area	Moral Philosophy
Theme	Self-deception
Plot Summary	Ernst Janning (Burt Lancaster), a senior German judge on trial at Nuremberg after the war, deludes himself that he only went along with the Third Reich to lessen its harshness, to prevent a worse man taking his place. Spencer Tracy plays the lawyer who takes this defence apart carefully and devastatingly at the trial.
Key Scenes
Relevant Text	