

Title	A Fish Called Wanda
Director	Charles Crichton
Date	1988
Area	19 th Century German Philosophy
Theme	Nietzsche – Overman misinterpretation
Plot Summary	Americans Wanda (Jamie Lee Curtis) and her boyfriend Otto (Kevin Kline) are in England to plot with George and Ken (Michael Palin) the robbery of a diamond collection. Wanda and Otto want the stolen diamonds for themselves, and inform on George, not knowing that he has already moved the diamonds to another secret place. Wanda thinks the best way to find out where they are is by getting close to George's lawyer, Archie Leach (John Cleese). Features a bad Nietzsche interpretation, with Otto espousing a crude, 'fascistic' conception of Nietzschean thinking and the Overman.
Key Scenes
Relevant Text	